NAME: David C. Peck

ADDRESS:

Home: 6245 Green Meadows Road
Memphis, Tennessee 38120

Business: Peck Investment Company
Ridgeway Business Center
5865 Ridgeway Center Parkway
Suite 300
Memphis, Tennessee 38120

COMPANY: Peck Investment Company - 6-30-06 to Present
After 30 years as President and CEO of The Weston Companies, Mr. Peck retired effective June 30, 2006 and formed Peck Investment Company. In this capacity, he will continue to develop commercial real estate, and perform brokerage services for a select group of businesses and individual investors.

The Weston Companies - 3-15-76 to 6-30-06
A full-service commercial real estate firm specializing in the development, investment and management and leasing of office, industrial and retail properties for its own account and for third-party institutional investors and private ownership. The organization contains all real estates disciplines in-house, including sales and marketing, finance & accounting, architecture, construction and property management functions.

EDUCATIONAL
BACKGROUND: A 1963 graduate of Memphis State University – BBA Degree with a double major in Chemistry and Sales and a minor in Marketing.

RESUME NARRATIVE: A native Memphian born in 1940, Mr. Peck graduated from Memphis State University with a BBA Degree with a double major in Chemistry and Sales received in June of 1963. Immediately after graduating from MSU, Mr. Peck entered the United States Air Force Reserve and received his honorable discharge in 1969. After returning from basic training in February of 1964, he began his business career in the pharmaceutical industry as a sales representative with Pfizer Laboratories. He remained in this profession for 10 years and consistently ranked in the top percentile in production for the entire country. He was recognized by Pfizer as the Outstanding Salesman of the Year during his last two years with that company.

In 1973, he began his career in commercial real estate development, as a marketing representative leasing warehouse and office space in the Memphis area. He rose to the position of Marketing Director in 1975 and was responsible for properties in five states. In 1976, he was selected to head the Memphis division of the Vantage Companies, then the country's second largest commercial real estate developer, as its Senior Vice President and General Manager.

RESUME NARRATIVE

(cont'd):

In this position, he inherited a real estate portfolio of approximately 600,000 square feet of commercial properties near the airport with an office staff of seven people. Over the next 12 years, he was promoted to Executive Vice President, then Managing Partner and Executive Vice President, and finally President and Managing Partner in 1984. During this 12 year period, the organization grew to 85 people, while at the same time developing over 19 million square feet of commercial real estate valued in excess of $850 million.

In 1988, he and his Dallas partner, John F. Eulich, purchased the Memphis operation from its Dallas-based parent, (the Vantage Companies), in a transaction valued at $250 million. The name of the new ownership entity was changed to The Weston Companies with Mr. Peck being appointed as President & CEO. Under his leadership, Weston grew to be one of the largest regional real estate firms in the southeastern United States.

BUSINESS

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

Since beginning his career in commercial real estate development in 1974, Mr. Peck developed over 26 million square feet of commercial/industrial properties valued at approximately 1.1 Billion Dollars; all of which are located in the Memphis area.

A comprehensive list of the significant projects is attached to this resume and include high-rise office buildings, office parks, industrial parks, retail shopping centers and a host of buildings designed and constructed for companies throughout the mid-south area.
